WELCOME
TO THE NEW YORK STATE TRAUMA-INFORMED NETWORK

We're here to connect you with other organizations around NYS, bringing you resources and events on a variety of topics that promote trauma-responsive practices.

Our goal is to support champions of trauma responsive practices across the state with improved connection and access to quality resources. Together we can increase the collective understanding of trauma, improve practice, and support resilience throughout New York State.

FOCUS ON: TI Response to Current Events

Focus

The Traumatic Impact of Racism and Discrimination on Young People and How to Talk about It.

Excerpted from the 2nd Edition of Reaching Teens available from the American Academy of Pediatrics, this chapter provides a direct and clear call to action to address individual and systemic racism from a strength-based, trauma-informed perspective.

Champion's Corner

Kenneth Ginsburg, MD, MS Ed.

This month's Champion is Dr. Kenneth Ginsburg. Dr. Ginsburg is Co-Founder and Director of Programs at Center for Parent and Teen Communication (CPTC) and Professor of Pediatrics at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. He travels the world speaking to parent, professional, and youth audiences and is the author of 5 award-winning parenting books, as well as a multimedia, interdisciplinary professional toolkit on "Reaching Teens."

His approach is grounded in trauma-responsiveness and resilience development, rooted in positive youth development and has influenced individual and community action across the country. Dr. Ginsburg promotes deep understanding and adult responsiveness to youth to support and change our world for the better.

CPTC follows his strength-based philosophy and resilience-building model.
