NEW YORK STATE TRAUMA-INFORMED NETWORK

FOCUS FORWARD...

BRINGING YOU THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE NYS TRAUMA INFORMED NETWORK

Resources | Connection | Inspiration

FOCUS
Embedding Trauma-Informed Principles Into Practice: A Cultural Case in Progress

NEW RESOURCES
Opportunities to learn more on this month's focus

CHAMPION'S CORNER
Features champion
Tim Hathaway
Co-Chair of NYSPEP, Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse New York

TIPS
Getting the most from the NYS Trauma-Informed Network

2022 NYS TI Network Annual Meeting Link

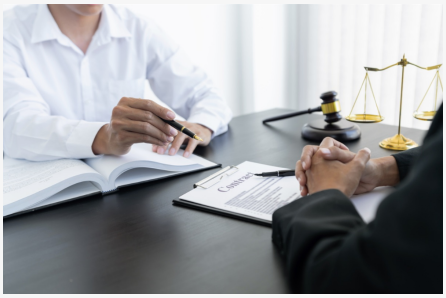
WELCOME
TO THE NEW YORK STATE TRAUMA-INFORMED NETWORK

We're here to connect you with other organizations around NYS, bringing you resources and events on a variety of topics that promote trauma-responsive practices.

Our goal is to support champions of trauma responsive practices across the state with improved connection and access to quality resources. Together we can increase the collective understanding of trauma, improve practice, and support resilience throughout New York State.

FOCUS ON:
Embedding Trauma-Informed Principles Into Practice: A

Cultural Case in Progress



Focus: Embedding Trauma-Informed Principles Into Practice: A Cultural Case in Progress

We like to say, "We don't get it right every day but we are willing to keep trying!" PCANY has been working to walk the walk for the past four years when it comes to TI practice. For us, this means being willing to look internally at how we are present daily for our own staff to ensure that what we do internally aligns with what we do externally with our partners. This has led us to think deeply and reflectively about the culture we want to nurture and grow. So much of our work is about the 6 Principles of TI Practice and the Protective Factors Framework and we were curious and excited to see if we could embrace these more completely into our organizational life.

READ THIS MONTH'S BLOG POST

Additional Resources

Here are some important resources:

- Reimagining Communities: Using Trauma-Informed Practices to Build Safe Spaces and Systems that Heal
- Trauma-Informed Oregon: Resource Library
- Making the Connection: Using Trauma-Informed Care and Trauma Recovery Tools in Your Work
- A Trauma-Informed Approach to the 1115 Waiver: A Critical Ingredient for Success

Search Resources at the NYS Trauma-Informed Network for more

Champion's Corner

Tim Hathaway
Co-Chair of NYSPEP, Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse New York

Tim Hathaway is the Co-Chair of NYSPEP and the Executive Director of Prevent Child Abuse New York (PCANY), the only statewide organization that works solely to enhance state- and community-based prevention initiatives to build strong families. PCANY training and technical assistance efforts are geared to provide professionals and communities with knowledge, tools, and resources that increase use of the Protective Factors to help prevent child maltreatment. Their policy and advocacy work drives initiatives both at a state and local level designed to change systems that impact child maltreatment. Tim has over thirty years of experience working with children and families and the systems that serve them.

For the past eleven years he has been a part of Prevent Child Abuse network both in NY as well as North Dakota. Prior to this he was a part of the Federal Head Start Technical Assistance team, and directed Head Start, Early Head Start and Child Care programs in various states.

TIPS

Here are some suggestions to help you get the most out of the NYS Trauma-Informed Network. Add a resource, share an event, help us spread the word and drive change in NYS.

NEW YORK STATE TRAUMA-INFORMED NETWORK